COUNTER CHARGES OF MALFEASANCE MADE BY THE MACHINE BOSSES-AN UNEX-

> PECTED RESULT. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Buffalo, April 19.—At the present rate Buffalo will be in a condition of anarchy in a few days, and will have to worry along without city officials. In re-venge for the suspension by Mayor Bishop of James Hanrahan, president of the Common Council, the Sheehanites this afternoon filed charges of malfeasance in office against Councilmen Jewett M. Richmond and Henry J. Kreinheder, and Aldermen R. K. Smither and Adam Boeckel. Richmond is a Cleveland Democrat, the others are Republicane. It is asserted that they, like Hanrahan, have been selling goods to the city in violation of the charter. Furthermore, formal charges against Mayor Bishop have been sent to Governor Flower for verifying the warrants for the payment of these accounts. It is not to be un-derstood that any one is charged with defrauding the city in any way. The Sheebanites further threaten to bring charges against James Mooney and George S. Gatchell, Commissioners of Public Works, on the same grounds as the charges against the Mayor. If the charges against the Councilmen and Aldermen are sustained Mayor Bishop will have no cheice in the matter, but will have to suspend these men pending investigation. In spite of all these sensational proceedings, there are indications that Lieutenant-Governor Sheeban is beginning to get frightened and that the technical charges against Mayor Bishop will be dropped. Henry A. Richmond, one of the most prominent Democrats in the city, declared this afternoon that if Governor wed Mayor Bishop, who had proved him sif one of the best Mayors Buffalo ever had, 10,000 Democrats in the city would vote the Republican ticket. Sheehan's lieutenant, Hanrahan, the deposed president of the Common Council, when asked this sternoon if he were going to get revenge said: I want to state distinctly that I am not preferring charges against Mayor Pishop, and I do not intend to prefer any. If charges are made against the Mayor, they will not be made by me." This afternoon "The Times," Sheelan's own particular monthpicce, dropped its bluster and fell to plending with the (leveland Democrats. It says:

"Of course it will continue to be the purpose of the Republican leaders and their newspapers still further to influence the rank and file of the Democracy in their eagerness to establish hopeful and perm divisions in our party. Democratic clubs will see the propriety of restraining themselves from any attempted persocutions of large bodies of their fellow members because of sides taken in this most unfor-tunate complication. Nothing but disaster accompanies such continued bitterness in clubs or in the party for which the clubs have existence. There have been great exasperations on both sides. The objects of both are apparent to all. Nothing can be gained by hyperfervid political wildness and oratory. Further public contention will be welcomed nowhere except within the lines of the Republican party."

The Cleveland Democrats have swallowed their wrath and submitted to Sheehan half a dozen times in the past on such a plea, and they will not do it again. They are going to break the machine this

The Black Rock Business Men's Association held an indignation meeting last night, and adopted resolu-tions declaring that Sheehan and his men have, by their action, proved themselves to be thieves and Bars, and voted that a committee of five be appointed "to consult with the other public bodies of the city of Buffalo to see if there is any way in which this damnable wrong can be righted and the persons who took part in it receive adequate punishment and placed behind prison bars." At the petition of an ex-Sheehanite the reference to prison bars was afterward withdrawn. The ex-Sheehanite in question said, however, that he would indorse the words thleves" and "liars."

Stephens Assembly, No. 3,629, Knights of Labor, also adopted vigorous resolutions, disapproving of the course of President Trapper, of the Central Labor Union, in defending sheehan at the Merchants Ex change meeting. To morrow noon the Builders Ex-change is to hold an indignation meeting, and tomorrow evening the Erie County Medical Society and the Eric County Homocopathic Society will forget their differences and hold a joint meeting at Association liall to denounce the Sheehan gang.

In the enforced absence of Councilman Hanrahan. the Sheehan Democrats absented themselves from the council meeting to day, and broke the quorum for fear that the Cleveland Democrats would take advantage of them and elect a Cleveland man to succeed the late an, George W. Hayward. "But we would scorn to take such a mean advantage of the minority," sald Councilman Sandrock.

The present indignation is having one effect, which

The present indignation is having one effect, which Mr. Sheehan probably didn't think of, the Sheehan Democrats who are now under indictment for participating in the ballot-box outrage last election had hope that public indignation was subsiding, so that they might be allowed to escape. Demands for their immediate trial are now being made on every hand. If the District-Attorney brings up their cases now they are not likely to get off as easily as did Duggan, the man whom Sheehan came on from Albany to defend. There was an interesting development in the Assessors' office today. Fifteen prominent properly owners filed a protest ngainst a sudden and remarkable increase of 50 per cent in their assessment. The significance of this episode is that the fifteen are prominent anti-Sheehan men, and that Sheehan controls the Board of Assessors. Oddly enough, the Lieutenant-Governor is to preside at an Irish Home Rule mass-meeting in this city next Saturday evening at Music Hall. On the same evening, scarcely a stone's throw from Music Hall, the Ruffalo Republican League is to hold a mass-meeting to denounce Mr. Sheehan for outrageous interference with local "home rule."

SCIENTISTS RECEIVED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Washington, April 19.-The members of the National Academy of Science again occupied the lecture hall of the National Museum to-day, and the reading of papers on scientific subjects was continued. The only offices to fill this year were foreign secretary and treasurer and six additional members of the council. Wolcott Gibbs was re-elected secretary, and Dr. Billings treasurer. The additional members of the council elected were Messrs, Brush, Gould, Langly, Mendenhall, Newcomb and Remsen. At 3 o'clock the members of the Academy adjourned to the White House, where they were received by the President.

A GRAVE CHARGE AGAINST A POLICEMAN-

OFFICER HERTZ ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH A MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

If the testimony offered by a reliable witness may be trusted, Policemas Matthew Hertz, of the Twenty third Precinct, may be tried on a serious charge soon The story of the case has developed in a somewhat remarkable way. The actions of an ambalance surgeon served for a time to conceal the real nature of the injuries sustained by Michael Bolton in his encounter with a patrolman.

Adolf Kruger, a wholesale grocer and one of th firm of Ford and Kruger, whose store is at Fiftheth-st, and Sixth-ave., had spent the night of Thursday. April 6, at home and at 1 o'clock Friday morning remembered that he had left his overcost in the store. Having got the cot he was about to relock the door when his attention was attracted by the sound of voices reised in angry dispute. The sound came from the southeast corner of Fiftieth-st, and sixth-ave. As he looked across the street he saw James Bolton—whom for fifteen years he had known—shaking his stick in the face of a policeman whom he recognized as Hertz. In the same moment Hertz stepped forward and struck Bolton twice or thrice it fell in a heap on the sidewalk, his head striking the curb with a crash. Kruger ran across the road and reached Bolton's side as the policeman bent over the inanimate form. But persuasion, entreaty and threat were powerless to arouse Bolton. Hertz then sent out a call for an ambulance. The surgeon quickly to assured the policeman. "Statiened," he said, as he looked on the man and started to revive him. only a scalp wound," he remarked complacently, tying the bandages round a masty cut in the back of the head. "Take him away; he's more drunk than hurt. Hertz took him to the East Fifty-first-st, police station where he was locked up as a disorderly person.

Bolton was quiet one night-so quiet that the door man, looking into his cell at 7 o'clock in the morning, ran upstairs to the sergeant and said: "Some thing is wrong with one of the drunks." As the sergeant entered the cell Bolton lay back against the wall in a heavy stupor, his eyes closed and his face as white as that of a corpse. The sergeont's diagnosis of the case, with a slight difference, agreed with that of the surgeon. He thought the man was more hurt than drunk, and promptly sent for a Bellevue Hospital ambulance. Bolton was insensible when he was carried into the hospital, and never

The first things that Dr. Miner noticed were two The first things that Dr. Miner noticed were two peculiar looking cuts, one over the right eye, which had been blackened, and one near the base of the skull. A closer examination, revealing several clots, suggested extravasations of blood on the brain. Dr. Miner believed that Bolton had sustained a fracture of the skull and at last found it at the base of the skull, about two inches above the laceration. Bolton, always unconscious and speechless, lingered until 9 o'clock yesterday morning, when he died. The autopsy by Deputy Corucar Cheway showed two fractures instead of one.

Superintendent Byrnes, who had investigated the case and knew only of the fracture at the base of the skull, had been inclined to the opinion that Bolton had received his injury in falling. But humediately on hearing the result of the autopsy revealing fracture in ordered Hertz's suspension. He was arrested histinght.

SEVENTY YEARS OF EXCEPLENT WORK. ANNUAL MEETING OF A SOCIETY WITH A

TIME RECORD. The seventieth annual meeting of the managers of the New York A-ylum for Lying-In Women was held yester day at the hespital, No. 130 Secondays. During the year 153 cases have been treated by the orition depart-ment of the asylum, and there have been treated within ment of the walls fifty two cases, not a single death occurring. The election of the new heard of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. S. H. Wynkeep, first directions: Mrs. Charles A. Mortord, second directors: Mrs. Julia Eva Müler. A. Mortord, second directores; Mrs. Julia Iva Miller, secretary, and Mrs. J. L. Charin, treasurer. At noon a public meeting was held by the patrons and directors of the institution. After the annual reports had been read, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Rylance made an address. He was followed by Dr. Thomas F. Cock and Dr. S. B. Nicheod, who told of the work of the institution.

The asylum began its work in 1823, having then two the New York Heaving. 1823 the work was coms in the New-York Hospital. In 1877 the work was rooms in the New-York Hospital. In 185, the work was removed to No. 85 Marion-st, where it did a great amount of good. Then, following the uptown movement, that property was sold, and for a number of years the good work has been continued at the present address. In the seventy years of its existence it points to the record of 19.845 cases in its author department and 5.591 on-linements in the asylum, a total of 25.439 cases. It has a few bell of the property without any inements in the asylum, a total of 25,430 cases. It has twenty-six free beds and its doors are eyen, without any charge, to respectable married women of all nationalities and creeds. The resident physician is Dr. Davies Cove and his staff consists of trained nurses.

It is intereded to open in a short time a large school in which will be framed obstetrical nurses. At present the nurses come from St. Luke's and the Preshyterian topistics. The work of the asylum, too, has been hampered for want of sufficient means properly to conduct it. It is excentially a conservative institution and has, therefore, perhaps escaped in part the attention of the asylum many names prominent in the social and religious world. Those who began the work in 1853 were Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Bailey D. Beckman, Dr. Thomas Cock, John Jacob Astor, Radey D. Beckman, Dr. Thomas Cock, Moses Field, N. L. Some surprise was created yesterday in husiness and political circles by the report that the principal stock holders in the Nicaragua Canal Company had called upon ex-Senator Warner Miller to resign the presidency of the company, and that definite action taken in regard to a change of management a to be laten in regard to a change of management as special meeting of the company to be held at a today, at the effices of T. Ex-Senator Miller, when seen last evening by a Tribune reporter at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, said Three years ago this man Knight, who now figurewithout authorization as the representative of the English stockholders and the English Government, was recomme ded to me as a competent accountant No sooner did he reach Nieuragua than lds head began to swell. He quarrelled with our manager, began to discharge cierks and employes and behaved so wildly that our chief engineer, A. G. Menocal, telegraphed me shortly that he must be recalled, or he would ruln the company. I relieved him then, but not before he had inflicted a vast amount of loss upon

Knight began his work of revenge two years ago by sending a circular to all our stockholders at tacking the management just before the annual elec-tion. The result was that the ticket for directors which my friends supported, was manimously elected. His present attack will end, I think in much the same way. Smith M. Weed informed me to-day that he would go to the meeting informed me to-day that he would go to the meeting to-morrow and give a proper history of this man and his attacks upon me. John C. Calhoun, who is mentioned as abetting the scheme, was here to see me this evening. He will be at the meeting, too. Of course there are a few disgranted stockholders who are alding Knight, but when they are in possession of

It is asserted with equal confidence that Secretary Carlisle is supported in his attitude by three other members of the Cabinet-Secretaries Gresham and Morton and Attorney-General Olney, while Secretaries Lamont, Herbert and Smith and Postmaster-General Bissell hold a contrary opinion. In other words, the Cabinet is equally divided on the question. It is understood that the first member of the Cabinet to take sides with the Secretary of the Treasury was the Attorney-General, whose action in this regard was somewhat of a surprise to his col-leagues, and that it was not until after the matter had been discussed pretty fully that the Secretary of State pronounced in favor of the policy advocated by Mr. Carlisle. The Cabinet discussions are said to have been exceedingly animated and earnest, and it is also asserted that the President has not yet formally indicated his approval of the policy so vigorously advocated by his secretary of the Treasury and supported by three other members of the Cabinet.

For several days it has been openly asserted on the streets by friends of Secretary Carlisle that he had a surprise in store for "Eastern bankers and the a surprise in store for "Eastern bankers and the money-lenders of Wall Sireet," who would find that they could no longer "dictate the financial policy of the Government." In this relation Representative Me. Millin, of Tennessee, who was a member of the Way, and Means Committee in the last Congress, said to-day: "The secretary of the Treasury has a perfect right to use his discretion whether he shall redeem the Treasury notes in gold or silver. The law provides that they shall be redeemed in coin, and, as a matter of convenience to some people, they have heretofore heen redeemed in gold coin, but if it does not said the convenience of the Government to pay out gold, then silver should be used. I have noticed that these infractened paales come periodically, and I think they are attempts to force the sale of bonds. I think that the Government should go into debt only as a last resource."

RUMORS ABOUT T. C. PLATT.

MR. DEPEW SHOWS THAT THERE WAS NOTHING IN ONE OF THEM.

Considerable discussion was caused among Repub licens yesterday by the publication of a dispatch from Niagara Falls, containing two letters, alleged to ave been written by Senator Sherman and Chauncey M. Depew, about ex-Senator Platt, and other Repubitean leaders, in one of which at least the writer was represented as having made an uncomplimentary of Mr. Platt's behavior as a Republican leader in this State. It was said that the letters appeared in "The Daily Gazette," the local Repubhean new-paper in Niagara Falls, in reply to a request from the editor for an expression of opinion on an editorial printed in his paper, concerning the future of the Republican party, and the course to be parsued as well by the rank and file of that organization as by those to whose counsel and guidance future is committed. This is what Senator She

JOHN SHERMAN.

Mr. Platt was seen at the office of the United States Express Company by a Tribune reporter in regard to the alleged letters. Mr. Platt said: "This matter has been called to my attention about fifty times to-day. All I can say about it is that I don't believe John Sherman ever wrote the letter; in other words, I believe it is a fake. I have not seen the newspaper article on which Mr. Depew's letter is based, but I am satisfied that he would not commend anything which attacked me personally."

"Did you write that letter, Mr. Depew?" said a Tribune reporter, as the genial railroad president hurried fom his study, where he had been speaking ever a long distance telephone to his private secre tary, H. C. Daval, whom he had left in Albany a few est intention in my mind, directly or indirectly, when dictating it to the stenographer to refer to him. This is how it came about, as nearly as I can recolect: same time ago I received proofs of a column, double-leaded editorial, which consisted mainty of suggestions as to the future of the Republican party, and how its affairs were to be conducted. I chanced through it cursorily only. Indeed I do not emember at this moment whether any reference was nade in it to Mr. Platt at ail. If there was, I didn't take any notice of it. I put the article aside, and it emained unanswered. A few days later I got a letter from the editor, which would seem to indicate that he was somehow displensed. I hate you, said he, or something like that, for having nominated from Harrison instead of John Sherman; but I admire you, and I write for your opirion, on account of your damned versatility. Damned versatility was good, wasn't Ht? said Mr. Depew, as he gave a laugh. And so I wrote him. I said what I think was a very good piece of advice, without regard to any previous factional disputes, that the duty of all good frepablicans is to the party first, and to the party policy and nerty activity among its members for the ter from the editor, which would seem to indicate icy, and party activity among its members for the nature. "The Democratic party is making victory for us as quickly as we can desire. The condition of the Republican party at present, with the rapidly growing dissensions and bitter-feurls in the Democratic party over patronage, power, control, bossism, and so forth, reminds me of General Rosectans's quartermaster general. Rosectans's quartermaster general of his army received peremptory notice from the War Department that he was indebted to the Government for $25,000,000, and to transmit the mount at once. The supplies of all kinds, gans, ammanition, provisions, and so forth, were charged up against the quartermaster of each army, and the force in the Treasury Department was insufficient to credit the vouchers for several years afterward. The quartermaster was astounded and alarmed, and so paralyzed that he sent no answer. For many months he received letters demanding immediate return of a sum which was several millions of dollars less than it was the month before. When it came down to $5,000 he wrote to the Secretary of the Treasury; "You are paying off my debt a thundering sight faster than I could. Keep it up."

REPUBLICANS WIN IN PEORIA, III.

Peoria, Ill., April 19.-The city election vesterday resulted in the success of the entire Republican ticket by majorities ranging from 2,000 to 3,000, the latter figure being the majority for Philo B. Miles for Mayor. Colonel Warner, who had been elected Mayor of Peorla six times, the last time by 800 majority headed the Democratic ticket. The contest was on of the most exciting ever held here, and derived its chief significance from the fact that it was a test of the present strength of the A. P. A., which organiza-tion supported the Republican candidates.
